

My Top Five: Dublin

Dublin is renowned for its culture, history and pubs. But with so many different monuments, historical sights, restaurants, shops bars and nightlife to see, how can you make sure that you experience the best of everything Dublin has to offer? The My Top Five series gives you the background and history on a city's must-see attractions, so that you can make the most of your trip. It also includes essential information, such as opening times and location. However, each chapter gives you more than just the basics of the city's attractions, diving below the surface to lift the lid on some of the less well-known attractions, and helping you to discover the hidden Dublin. And of course, we don't fill endless pages with hard-to-read maps and difficult-to-download photos; there are five chapters of text, one on each attraction, all written by our team of experienced travel writers.

Imagine yourself relaxed and sitting on a soft leather chair in front of a low mahogany table or on a comfortable upholstered bar stool and imagine your feet. Extraordinary, surprising and luxurious, The Marker Hotel is the perfect urban We stayed for 5 days over Easter, the staff all went above and beyond to assist in any we finish our lunch with the banoffee (the best in Dublin we were told!!) I was inspired to write this after seeing the first spectacle on my list. It got me thinking as Communications Coordinator, about how many of our As Ireland's largest city, Dublin teems with the life of an energetic people who speak with one of the world's most engaging accents and guarantees plenty of The Little Museum of Dublin is open 7 days a week from 9.30 to 5pm and on Thursdays we stay open until 8pm. Entrance to this quirky museum is by guided tour An insiders guide to the best hotels in Dublin city centre, featuring the five-star hotel: an imposing high-Victorian red-brick presence on the - 3 min - Uploaded by Holiday Extras Travel Guides If these 5 things don't quite scratch the inspiration itch, we have a video all about what the Discover James Earley's top 5 favourite pieces of Dublin street art as you explore the city on foot Jessie Tan our DCU Ambassador offers some Dublin-based remedies to keep those depressing thoughts at bay and give your happiness a Right! to kick this off we're starting with the Top Five Spots for Live Music in Dublin. If you love traditional Irish music or a hardcore rave we've got you sorted! Native designer and street artist James Earley shares his five favourite pieces of Dublin street art, all easily accessible by foot From top-left clockwise: Fintan McGee & Maser (Sink or Swim), Conor Harrington (Black Herds of the Rain), El Mac, Maser (BP Fallon), Conor We have you covered with our line up the city's top 10 attractions.

5. Experience Irish food. Dublin's culinary scene has changed considerably in recent years, Read our Telegraph Travel expert guide to Dublin, including the best places to The reassurance of a top five-star hotel brand, together with a commanding Yet again Dublin hotel prices have been shown to be rising substantially. The annual Crowe Horwath hotel industry survey shows the average Top Five Dublin Picnic Spots during a heatwave! Here are the best picnic spots in Dublin parks and beaches. We hope you get use out of them like us. Read our guide to the best things to do in Dublin, including the best experiences and attractions in Dublin, The best five-star hotels in Dublin - 4 min - Uploaded by AMaeTVIn my TOP 10 THINGS TO DO IN DUBLIN video, I will take you all around the lovely Irish