

Prague 1:9,500 / 1:4,700 Street Map, plastic paper RG

Prague in a series of street plans from Rough Guides published on very light waterproof and tear-resistant plastic paper, indexed, with recommendations for shopping, eating, drinking, and venues. The plan is folded to only 9x19cm when detached from its protective cover, and can be easily rolled or folded into smaller size without any damage or creases. On one side is a plan of central districts of the city at 1:9,500, with insets on the reverse extending it further south and east to include Smichov - Vysehrad and Zizkov quarters. Also on the reverse is an enlargement showing the central Old Town and Josefov area, plus a detailed plan of the Prague Castle. The plans show metro and tram routes, with bus line numbers indicated along the streets, car parks and one way streets. Famous buildings, cultural institutions, etc. are highlighted and named. The plans are also annotated with colour-coded markers indicating publishers recommendations for shopping, eating, drinking, and venues. The map is indexed, including a separate index of sights, parks and embassies, and has a time chart clearly showing opening times of main institutions, an explanation of public transport system, and hotel recommendations. Also provided is a road map of the capitals environs. NOTE: for a complete coverage of Prague, an atlas is necessary - see 9788079953267.
