

Silent Dialogues: Diane Arbus & Howard Nemerov

Silent Dialogues, by art historian Alexander Nemerov, is a probing, intimate reflection about photographer Diane Arbus, the authors aunt, and her brother, Pulitzer Prizewinning poet Howard Nemerov, the authors father. I have no memories of Diane Arbus, begins Alexander Nemerov in the first of two meditative essays that comprise this book. A Resemblance examines Howard Nemerovs complicated responses to his sisters photography. The School focuses on a body of Arbus work known as the Untitled series, photographs made at residences for the mentally disabled between 1969 and 1971, in the last years of her life. Through their work, the author explores the siblings disparate and distinct sensibilities, and in doing so uncovers signs of an unexpected aesthetic kinship. Illustrations complementing the essays include numerous examples of Arbus photographs; paintings by artists as diverse as Pieter Brueghel, Norman Rockwell, Paul Feeley and Johannes Vermeer; and a selection of poems by Howard Nemerov, chosen by his son.
